FOREWORD

No greater treasure has man on earth than memories, and no sweeter memories are there than those centered around one's school days. Thus the Senior class brings to you this, the eighth volume of the CAVALIER, hoping that it will always bring back to you the dearest memories of your school days at Central and that this book will always be a treasured and loved possession throughout your life.

Bobby Wright, Editor

DEDICATION

In an effort to show our appreciation to our teams for their untiring efforts and perseverance, the Senior class dedicates this, the eighth volume of the CAVALIER, to our football team and our girls' basketball team.

CLASS POEM

We met on an early day of September,
Full of hope and courage to carry us o'er
The paths of our goal always to remember,
And cherish our loyalty to Central evermore.

We recall the memories and to our view,
Rise the familiar places where we have spent
Unforgotten hours striving to be true
To our colors flying high without stint.

The happy days have swiftly passed,
And we must meet the chasms of fate.
The mist clears and we learn at last,
We must leave dear Central in our wake.

Softly the shadows fall and as we stand
Swept with majestic curve, the class of '38
The dying flame leaves and unfettered hand
Harken to the opportunities for us await.

The 1938 Cavalier

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

J. T. Spivey

On the third day of Sept., 1934, approximately 125 green and inexperienced, but ambitious freshmen entered the portals of Central High. Our class was under the leadership of Joe Allison, and our sponsor was Mr. Fowler Clark.

After spending some months as green freshmen, we were thoroughly indoctrinated into the practices of the Cavalier and became solemn Sophomores. This year Mr. Fowler Clark selected Mr. W. M. Davis as principal. As Sophomores we took more interest in school activities. We were under the leadership of Mrs. John H. May and Mr. H. S. Clinton. Sam Brown, who was elected Pres., later left school. The responsibility then rested on Tom Dean, our Vice-president.

Then we became jolly Juniors. Our number had fallen to seventy students. We started with more spirit and energy as our President. This year Misses Sarah Carleton and Alice Scott were chosen as our sponsors. Betty May of Missouri was added to our class. All other activities of the year were overshadowed by the presentation of the play, "The Bad Boy," by the Junior class. The Proceeds went to finance the Junior-Senior banquet.

Now we become Seniors, the goal we had long sought for. We put away all things unbecoming to our newly acquired dignity. Again Billy Wright was elected as President and Miss Pauline Hudson and Mr. David R. Terry were chosen as sponsors. The Senior play, "Lone Star," a comedy drama, was given March 1. It was directed by Miss Pauline Hudson and the proceeds were used to finance the annual.

The graduation exercises will end the high school careers of Seniors of which only 33 are of the original 125. Through out all of our high school work we have witnessed many things which will always remain in our minds as pleasant memories of Central High. To our kind and understanding faculty, to Mr. Davis, and Mr. Clark we owe much more than mere gratitude.

To us the memory of everyone we have had the pleasure of knowing shall remain as we go forward to seek higher goals in life.

The 1938 Cavalier

CLASS WILL

James Dicus

We, the Senior class of Central High School, 1937-38, being of sound, disposing memory, do hereby make known our last testament to take effect after graduation.

I, David Akens, do bequeath to Jim Terry my knowledge of remembrance. I, Billy Cox, do bequeath to John Ellis (Lump) (Close) my excess weight. Please handle with care. I, Jane Cooke, do bequeath my love for Packards to Marjorie. I, (Poster) Russell, do bequeath my cigarette dices to Loring Gentry. FOOTBALL HISTORY

In September the chances for a winning team at Central were good, with eleven letter men returning. Thirty men were present at the first practice. On the 17th of Sept. twenty-two conditioned boys boarded Haney's bus for Gallatin with great hopes for victory. The boys returned with a 13-0 defeat. The following Friday Central went to Gordonsville and lost 6-0.

One week later Central's football started on an upward grade, when they held Livingston's Conference champs to a 3-6 tie. The following week they swamped Carnestown 2-0. Central defeated Carthage Oct. 22, to the tune of 13-0, this being the first time in history that Central had reigned victorious over Carthage. The next two games were lost away from home. The next week we were surprised with a victory over Smithville. The annual game with Baxter was played at T. P. I. stadium. This was one of the most thrilling games of the season with a victory of 7-0 for Central. After the game, the Girl Reserves gave a banquet for the winning team. This ended the most successful year of football Central has ever witnessed.

CLASS TOURNAMENT

One of the most interesting events at Central each year is the class tournament. This year the Senior girls were defeated in the finals by the Junior girls. The Senior boys were very victorious in the tournament, over-running the other classes by a large score. Quite a bit of material was found in this tournament for next years team and it is hoped that we will again have a championship team.

Starting out with very good material the track team faced a schedule with college freshmen, T.I.S. and Castle Heights. They placed in the Mid State meet at Tennessee Polytechnic Institute. The following week in the state meet at Knoxville, Central took nine points, this being more points than all the other teams of Middle Tennessee made. We are looking forward to a very successful season next year.

Central High is proud of this successful team, because of their loyalty and good sportmanship. These boys have played some of the best basketball that has been played in the last few years. Central was defeated by Carthage in the District Tournament. The team has good prospects for next year.

This is the third successive year that Central's team has been district champions in the meet held at Sparta. The girls were defeated in the first game of the regional tournament, held at Murfreesboro, by Bocerlan, who eventually won the tournament. Dimple Webb and Geda Gill were placed on the all district tournament team as guard and forward respectively. Hoosier and Bockman making the second team. The prospect for next years team is very good as we lose only four Seniors.

CLASS PROPHECY

Charles Holladay

I got out of the ditch with as much dignity as I could considering the fact that I had just been kicked off of a freight train by the only woman brakeman, she was Frances Maxwell. I looked around and saw that I was somewhere between Algood and Shake Rag. I walked to the highway and just as I started toward Cookeville Billy Kellogg passed me. He stopped the car and I got in. In talking to him I learned that he had charge of a paper route in Algood. We talked about people we had known at Central. He said Ira Winningham was the principal and Willene Grimsley was his secretary. Ira also handed out three day suspensions easily. Other teachers at Central were Geraldine Paris for shorthand, Ray Fussell, history and English, Marie Phillips art. Elizabeth Carlen was using her great mind teaching French. Pete Gracey had succeeded "Doc" High as head football coach and he said prospects were fine among the Freshmen for a great team.

When we reached the square I got out and the first thing I saw a sign proclaiming that Joe Allison was the best shyster lawyer in Putnam County. On another side of the square I saw a large dog wagon. When I walked over I saw that Mary Ruth Judd was running it. She said that she owned two more, one in the hollow and another on the west side. Harriett Boatman and Anna Ruth Ford were running them. Mary Ruth said that Dimple Webb and Pearl Rockman were running the post office at Double Springs and the government was about to get them for steaming open the envelopes. Dimple asked the post office inspector where she could get her news if she didn't open the envelopes. He told her to subscribe to the Salem Gazette edited by James Morris. He said an article of interest to her would be "Your Baby and Mine" by Virginia Furton. Geraldine Terry also reported on the paper. In the last issue she had written an interesting article about a dog fight.

After talking with Mary Ruth a little longer I started out Dixie Avenue. A car stopped and somebody asked if I wanted to ride. When I got in I saw it was Peggy Howard driving a taxi between T. P. I. and town. I got out where Phillip's store had been. It was now owned by Jerry Dicus and didn't have anything in it but slot machines of the type that you can't win. In the back L. Geraldine Terry was frying hamburgers made out of an old cow that Dicus had seen a train kill. Jimmy told me a lot of gossip. Lloyd "Hayrake" Knight was running a chicken farm and getting lots of eggs from roosters. James Crawford was judging cattle at Skunk Hollow. Houston Boyd was running a goat farm. Mary Sae Cummins was a great artist specializing in pictures of fried eggs. David Allen was running a place called Dr. Remedy's Hospital. Olivia Minor and Leron Hickey were running a beauty salon. Jimmie Isbell was married and helping run a hotel. J.T. Spivey was running a road roller. Dicus asked what had become of Will E. Pointer. I knew about

THE HOME ECONOMICS CLUB CREED

By Clara Hasslock

Happy in work and in play,
Eager their duty to see,
Skillful of hand and of eye,
Truthful in word and deed,
Undaunted in purpose and aim,
Devout in relation to God,
Earnest and faithful in all,
Nourished so well they are strong,
Truthful in all that they say,
Careful whatever they do,
Lovely and lovable, too,
Unselfish in all their ways,
Bright in studies and mind,
Sound in thinking and thought,

COOKEVILLE CHAPTER FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

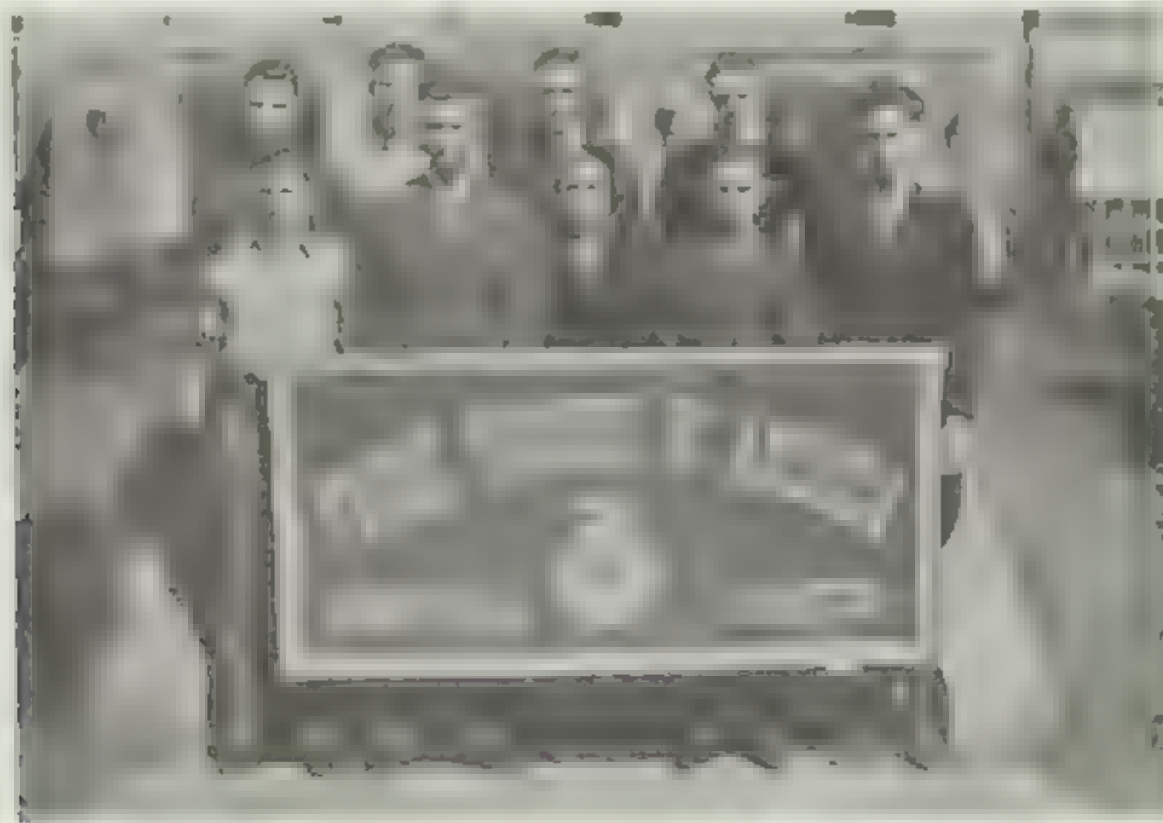

The Cookeville Chapter Future Farmers of America has 85 paid members that have about $8,000 invested in farming and more than $3,000 in savings accounts. There are 64 first class, 9 second class, 5 third class, and 2 fourth class projects being put into operation.

The chapter made a record showing at the County Agricultural Fair last fall. 175 entries were made and $150 dollars was won in prizes. $67.71 has been added to the treasury of which $33.50 has been set aside to give the Father and Son Banquet free, and to send the delegates to the state convention.

The judging teams of last year are as follows: Livestock-Dillard King, Chester King, Rastus Huddleston and Earnest Wilmoth; Dairy-James Crawford, Murrel Henry, Arnold Walker, and Charles Brown.

The delegates to the convention are Woodrow Mayberry and Loyd Knight. The chapter has three applicants for the State Planters Degree and one applicant for the American Farmer Degree.

Trade and Industry is a field that needs more attention to the training of young men and women for the various occupations. These young men named above can talk their field of language fairly well, as well as manipulate the tools necessary for an apprentice that is starting out.

him. He had been elected to a high office in the National Association of Bums, because of his high qualifications. Billy Cox and Catherine Reeves were married and living on love. Lillard McDonald was the newly elected sheriff. Alva K. Warren was his dietician and fed the guests on fried chicken and chocolate pie. Howard Burgess was the chief fee grabber. Jessie Lee Smith was a J. P. Jirmie and I came to town. As we got to the square, Jim Dyer and Jane Cooke passed us in a big Packard. At the picture show owned by Ella V. McCaleb the feature picture was starring Harmock Wall and Brucie Walker in "The Loves of a Man About Town" featuring the true experiences of Clebourne Stewart. The chorus girls were Louise Bates, Jessie L. Bilbrey, Essie Luke, and Mary Ruth Murphy. The director of the picture was Mary Elizabeth Smart.

As I walked down the street on the West Side I saw Odell Huddleston on the street corner selling fountain pens. He said Albert Mott was running a chicken business and doing his own book-keeping. In a drugstore I saw Betty May and Ola Grace Brown who were jerking sodas. A book on the counter was called "Poems of Beauty" by Dorcas Kirby and Clara Maynard. Betty said that Buford Johnson was driving a school bus and his wife Margie Brown was working their farm.

I was standing on the corner when James Crowley walked by. He said he was going to preside at a wedding. He was the pastor of the Mount Herman Church. When we got to the church there was a big crowd there. The organist started playing and as I looked it was Milora Spivey. Then Nellie Mott started singing a solo. As the bride walked down the aisle I saw it was Rosemar Piepmeyer who was going to the altar with Charles Stanton.

After the wedding I strolled out of the church and stood around a few minutes. The topic of conversation was the divorce case of Mr. and Mrs. Max Sawyer. Mrs. Sawyer was the former S. E. Wilhite. It seemed she had thrown cans of tomatoes at him. The judge, Squire Mitchell, granted the divorce because he said that he knew how hen pecked husbands were.

At the New Municipal Airport in Cookeville I saw Gertrude Sliger and Louise Wright selling chewing gum and cigarettes. A plane had just landed. The pilot Frank Moss kicked a stowaway off. It was Kate Essex who had gone from bad to worse since John Rid had left her. Adell Thompson was the stewardess. Stella Russell, Ruby Lee Coabtree, and Margaret Wilhite were on their way to South America to start a war. They said their husbands didn't put up a big enough fight for them.

On the way back into town I stopped at a carnival. Myrtle Pharris was selling tickets to the ferris wheel and Nell McCormick was running it. A sideshow was run by Juanita Jackson. Lucille Farley, Margaret Mayberry and Elise Mitchell were the main attractions. They did a fan dance. Bennett Travis was their manager. As I walked out of the grounds I saw Bobby Wright setting up pins in a bowling alley. I had to hurry to catch the next freight train out of town so I only waved to him and ran. I barely made it and was I glad to get out of that town there were too many there and I was afraid somebody would offer me a job.
